

International Women's Day

GENDER APARTHEID IN AFGHANISTAN:

A dialogue for engagement and understanding of women's lives (at risk)

#BreakTheBias #IWD2022 #IWDCP

Guest Speaker: Maliha Zulfacar, Ph.D.
Moderator: Dawn Neill, Ph.D.

Maliha Zulfacar, Ph.D. is a renowned educator, researcher, author and filmmaker with experience spanning the U.S. and Afghanistan. She was an Afghan university professor and the ambassador of Afghanistan to Germany, as well as a Professor at Cal Poly earning the Faculty Woman of the Year Award and the Distinguished Faculty Award.

While she worked on her professional and her philanthropic efforts, Zulfacar also published a book "Afghan Immigrants in the USA and Germany: A comparative Analysis of the Use of Ethnic Social Capital" and co-produced and co-directed two documentaries about life in Afghanistan including "Kabul Transit" which has been featured on Netflix and is available at the Cal Poly Library.

WHEN:

Tuesday, March 8

5:10 - 6 p.m.

WHERE:

Zoom ID: 898 1068 9203

CO-SPONSORS:

CAL POLY
College of Liberal Arts

CAL POLY
Interdisciplinary Studies
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

CAL POLY
Social Sciences
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

CAL POLY
Women's, Gender
& Queer Studies
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

CAL POLY
Men & Masculinities
Program