CAL POLY CAMPUS VIST NEVADA NATIONAL SECURITY SITE

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26
11:00 A.M. – 12:00 P.M.
BUILDING 38, ROOM 204

Careers. Research. Internships.

The Nevada National Security Site (NNSS) is a premier national laboratory (outdoor/indoor/underground) with offices in Livermore and Santa Barbara.

NNSS is recruiting for early career job opportunities and paid student internships. NNSS supports several National Nuclear Security Administration programs including national defense, security research, development/training programs and other vital federal agency programs.

Lean more about NNSS at nnss.gov.
