

May 14th | 3-4 pm

Engineering 13
Room 107

Food will be provided

WATERPOWER CLUB INAUGURAL MEETING

Cal Poly Waterpower Club is an academic organization that explores renewable energy through waterpower such as hydropower and wave energy. Participants can compete in national intercollegiate opportunities funded by the U.S. Department of Energy.

- Scholarships available
- Compete in national competitions
- Explore industry connections
- Funding for prototypes
- Officer positions available

