

STUDY ABROAD

CSUIP Germany Info Session

Thursday, Oct 10, 2:10-3:00, 52-e28

The CSU International programs in Germany offer students a distinctive opportunity to engage in high-quality academic programs while immersing themselves in German culture, developing language skills, enriching their global perspectives, and preparing them for diverse career paths in an increasingly interconnected world.

Cal Poly students can study abroad for a semester or academic year at one of 19 prestigious partner universities, accessing coursework toward major, minor, support, and GE requirements.
